EDITORIALS.

Have you ever been to Dr. Theo. Smith's drug store at Eighteenth and Tracy.

It was Frederick Douglass who said: "The Republican party is the ship, all else is the sea." Those Negroes who are still hanging on to the Roosevelt-Nelson regime should crawl into the ship before they drown.

Election figures from the Eastern section of the country do not indicate that the G. O. P. is dying out. The so-called Progressive sensation, on the contrary, is being rapidly cast aside by those who appreciate the real elements of good government.

Missouri does not appear to be very enthusiastic either upon the suffrage question or the prohibition movement. Advocates of these measures, however, declare that the present setback is only temporary and that success in the near future is sure.

It is regretted that the Harvey catering system did not see fit to continue the services of Negro waiters in its magnificent new quarters at the Union station, and the change is so greatly at variance with the well established Harvey spirit that the disappointment is all the more keen.

The Sun is receiving calls from everywhere for copies of the paper containing Dr. Rickett's entertaining story of "The Negro and the West." Our first edition being exhausted we have had extra copies issued containing the first issue which can be had by writing to this office.

Lincoln school is to be complimented upon the fact that the board of education has selected it as the center in which to try out the experiment of using paper towels. It is said that Lincoln has won approval of school authorities by the economical use which it has made of other school supplies, and if the experiment is a success the sanitary towel supply will be made permanent. The service of the newly equipped lunch room and shoe repairing shop will begin Monday and each is expected to prove a big success.

Negro women need a great many things worse than they need the ballot. They need to be inspired with a deeper sense of domesticity and a more sacred regard for maternity. These are the virtues that make for sound citizenship and guarantee real happiness. Let others spend their time upon fads and follies. We are yet in our infancy and should first solve the elementary problems about us. We need better home life, better trained children, higher moral and social ideals, better refined tastes and a higher appreciation of such virtues as punctuality, economy and sincerity.

THEY SAY

—That the Hop smokers are getting bold again.

—That you mustn't let this good weather fool you.

—That right will finally triumph over all its foes.

—That there are still some fool Negroes who are trying to beat policy.

—That Chas. A. Starks is destined to become one of the foremost writers of the race.

—That a certain preacher is being charged with loving the sisters just a "little" too much. Who is it?

—That some very fashionable people were raided in a rooming house not long ago. It's bad policy to get caught.

—That a certain wife was heard to remark to a friend, "I'll sho leave dat Niggah when spring comes agin." Goodbye, brother.

—That the member who belongs to Church and is in good health and perfectly able to give and yet contributes nothing, is a wolf in sheep's clothing.

—That the night of the recital of Hann's Jubilee Singers, a business man neglected his wife for his lady love and got bawled out on the street car.

—That a certain Miss exclaimed in a dejected way, "Oh, nobody wants a black girl." Noy, nay, dearie, black girls are all right. It's not color but goodness that counts.

—That a certain lady was invited to have tea at the home of another lady whose husband had been paying her a great deal of attention and she foolishly accepted the invitation with the result that when she went to the home of the lady who had extended the invitation and had been graciously invited into the parlor, the hostess and her daughter gave her one of the darndest lookings she ever had and sent her home with just enough clothing to keep her from breaking the law. That was awful, wasn't it, dearie.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. building is being rapidly furnished. The men's rooms are being reserved.

See the Y. M. C. A. articles in the Crisis and Outlook of November and October 28, respectively.

November 8 to 14 is "Week of Prayer" throughout the Y. M. C. A. world. An unusual spiritual season is expected. All men are invited to be present Sunday, November 8.

The subscribers to the furnishings fund are paying in as was expected. None but the most reliable persons were asked for a subscription. A letter from Chas. D. Frazier, now in Grand Canyon, Ariz., containing $25 was received last week.

Mr. A. L. Jackson, student international secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, visited our building this week. Mr. Jackson was class orator of the Harvard 1914 class. He was also chaplain of the track team. He succeeds Mr. D. D. Jones, of the international force, who is now executive secretary in St. Louis.

Thanksgiving week, November 22 to 29, has been set as the date for the dedication of the new building. The current issue of the Outlook contains an article on the Y. M. C. A. work, written by Dr. Booker T. Washington. A whole page is given to a picture of the laying of the corner stone for the Kansas City building. This celebration is known now as the greatest of its kind, likewise it is expected that the dedication will stand forth as one of the greatest. Some of the best known national characters as Dr. Booker Washington, Dr. J. E. Moorland and Dr. J. W. E. Bowen are expected.

ROSEDALE, KAS.

Mr. Lee Morris and Miss Carrie Everett were quietly married Saturday. The many friends of Mr. Ernest Williams are glad to see him out again after his recent illness. The officers and members of the Pleasant Valley Baptist church desire the co-operation of all the churches in the two Kansas Cities. We hope that the people will have no ill feeling because some ministers come and take some of the members and organize another church. We do not feel that we have mistreated our pastors and in trying to protect the best interests of all concerned we would like assistance in our efforts. No one is authorized to solicit for this church at the present time. The B. Y. P. U. will be reorganized Sunday evening at 6:30. Brother Joseph Collins will be the president. Everyone is invited.

TO THE LOVERS OF GOOD THINGS TO EAT.

Mrs. M. B. Carr solicits their patronage for mince meat, 20 cents a pint and 40 cents a quart. Orders to be in before the 15th and delivered after that date.
